get complete pdf at learnexams.com

WGU D307 Objective Assessment Prep V1 (New 2023/ 2024 Update) Educational Psychology and Human Development of Children and Adolescents | Questions and Verified Answers| 100% Correct| Grade A

QUESTION

While solving a multistep math problem, a student forgets the second and third steps while implementing the first. During reading, the student often forgets what was at the beginning of the paragraph before reaching the end of a paragraph.Which memory deficit is likely affecting this student's learning and performance?

Answer:
Working memory

QUESTION

A fourth-grade student frequently says sentences that do not make sense, has trouble learning new words, and often repeats phrases when telling a story or answering questions. The teacher notices the student confuses verb tenses and uses "um," "stuff," and "things" when speaking rather than more specific words.Which type of barrier is likely affecting this student's learning?

learnexams

Answer:
Language disorder

QUESTION

Due to family circumstances, a high-performing student suffers from inadequate sleep.Which learning and performance impact would be consistent with the student in this scenario?

Answer:
Decreased ability to focus

LEARNEXAMS.COM

get complete pdf at learnexams.com

QUESTION

An extremely intelligent middle school student does not complete work, is suspicious of those who want to be friendly, and is very judgmental of others. A teacher hears the student speak about hating the school and refers the student to the guidance counselor for poor self-esteem.How does poor self-esteem affect learning and performance?

Answer:
It decreases the willingness to take risks

QUESTION

Even in the heat, a somewhat withdrawn student wears long sleeves and pants. As a victim of abuse, this student fears being required to have anything signed by a parent. How does child abuse influence learning and performance?

Answer:
It increases self-isolation and fear of reprimand

QUESTION

A second-grade student is argumentative and defiant and engages in passive-aggressive behaviors such as giving a peer a hug or high five that causes pain. The teacher notices the student bullying other students on the playground.In which area of development is this student struggling?

learnexams

Answer:
Social-emotional

QUESTION

An eight-year-old student diagnosed with cerebral palsy is working at grade level academically but is unable to write, climb a jungle gym, or participate in any extra curricular activities.In which area of development is this student struggling?

Answer:
Cognitive

LEARNEXAMS.COM

get complete pdf at learnexams.com

QUESTION

A sixth-grade student, who is being bullied, is afraid to go to recess and walk home after school.Which effect on learning and performance might this student experience?

Answer:
A decrease in self-complacency

QUESTION

A fourth-grade student with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) is inattentive, is disruptive, and has difficulty completing assignments.How can the teacher address this student's learning needs?

Answer:
Give several choices for completing the activity

QUESTION

A student in high school is an English learner (EL) who is operating at the formal operational stage of development.Which classroom activity would address this student's learning needs?

learnexams

Answer:
Solving hypothetical problems

QUESTION

An underweight middle school student is seen negotiating for food from other students. This student regularly falls asleep in class, complains of headaches, and is unfocused and unmotivated.Based on this description, which area of development of this student should be addressed?

Answer:
Physical needs

QUESTION

LEARNEXAMS.COM